Membership & Performance Agreement

Mission Statement

It is the goal of PERCUSSION ONE to provide a setting for the percussive arts that stresses excellence in education and performance.

This agreement applies to all activities of PERCUSSION ONE/P1-13 for the 2010-2011 season.

Student's Name: _____

Welcome to PERCUSSION ONE. We are happy to have you as a member of one of the finest percussion ensembles in the country. PERCUSSION ONE is an elite group that represents excellence in both percussion performance and citizenship. In order to continue this excellence, all members must agree to the following guidelines:

Rehearsals are extremely important, and therefore it is expected that all members will be at as many rehearsals and performances as possible. Please also plan to arrive prior to rehearsal allowing time to set up instruments. If you are aware of a rehearsal/performance that you will not be able to attend, please inform Percussion One by emailing your director prior to the rehearsal/performance. In addition, it is necessary that all members have the prescribed and assigned music learned through independent practice prior to the rehearsal/performance. Continued absences or consistent lack of preparation on assigned music could jeopardize continued membership.

Membership fees and all other fees must be paid in accordance with the established payment schedule. If payments cause hardship, please contact Lamar Burkhalter, Executive Director, Percussion One Foundation.

Percussion One stresses citizenship and respect and expects all members to be on their best behavior at all times, showing respect to the entire staff of Percussion One, fellow members and audiences as well as their rehearsal and performance facilities.

Any member that does not abide with the guidelines as described above, may be subject to dismissal from the group along with the forfeiture of any fees that have been paid.

The Percussion One Foundation Board of Directors and Officers makes all decisions regarding music, assignments, fees, guidelines and personnel. In addition, it is understood that PERCUSSION ONE FOUNDATION, Mr. Burkhalter, the PERCUSSION ONE staff or PERCUSSION ONE volunteers, will not assume any responsibility in case of accident, injury, or other loss associated with PERCUSSION ONE/P1-13 and its activities.

P1-13 Klein
Financial Agreement

The dues for the 2010-2011 season of P1-13 are $250 per member per semester which includes payment for a performance shirt. Members may also be required to purchase a uniform jacket or warm-up jacket and pants at a minimal cost for the TMEA performance.

Dues are non-refundable and must be paid in full at the first rehearsal of each semester.

Since Percussion One/P1-13 depends on member dues to operate, it is extremely important that dues are paid on time. Any financial concerns need to be presented to Lamar Burkhalter, Executive Director of Percussion One/P1-13 by the first rehearsal.

If financial obligations are not met as agreed upon, his/her membership with Percussion One/P1-13 will be suspended until financial obligations are met. A 10% late fee will incur on all payments made after the due date.
